

Gene E Stone

January 29, 1933 - April 22, 2013

Gene E. Stone, affectionately known as "Uncle Gino" or "the dog walker" strolled into heaven on April 22, 2013. Gene was born in Chicago, IL on January 29, 1933 to Martha and Andrew White, who preceded him in death along with his brothers, Donald, Andrew and Henry White. A graduate of DePaul University, Gene honorably served his country in the Army. Arriving in Toledo, Ohio, Gene made his vocation in the world of recruiting or "head hunting" and became one of the most successful in his field. He was employed by Sterling Imperial and later opened Key Executive Employment. He legally changed his name from White to Stone, as he was known in the employment field and his moniker became "Stone like rock". Throughout his career, Gene successfully placed many executives in both small and large companies throughout this area. A mentor to many, his dry humor, generosity and quick assessment of others were his strengths. Upon his retirement, Gene became the faithful dog walker for Judy's dogs, Ernie, Morgan and George. You could set your watch by Gene's dog walking schedule of 8:45am and 1:55pm. He enjoyed garage sales and enjoyed exercising and swimming at the Collingwood Center. Gene is survived by his rock solid friends, Mathias "Skip" and Judy Stone Gaynor and Cindy Lammiman. A commemoration of Gene's life will be held from 4:00 to 8:00pm Friday at the home of Mathias and Judy Stone Gaynor, 2439 Scottwood Ave, Toledo, Ohio In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the American Heart Association or the Toledo Area Humane Society.

“ Gene was my first boss in 1968 at OPS, and I went on to work for him at Key. Gene was a terrific fellow and a really good mentor who taught me skills I've used throughout my career. Rest in peace, my friend!
