“ Wishing to express my sympathy to the family of Mrs. Palmer, who was such a pleasant lady. She had her hands full at times, Bill and I, we were just two little squirts acting up, goofing off and she would try to be stern but end up smiling. It was nice to see her one more time today. Rest In Peace ~ Mrs. Palmer

“ While watching the Catholic EWTN TV channel Geri made hundreds of rosaries perfectly for Shepherds of Christ Ministries (www.softc.org) which sends rosaries to school children and adults worldwide. I visited her every couple months bringing more supplies when she called asking for more. I truly enjoyed our visits in her small apt. connected to her brother's house or we would drive to Tim Horton's for coffee and a donut. She also loved to crochet beautiful multi-colored lap blankets with left-over yarn. The one she gave to me was used daily by my mother Jeannette who died last year also at 94 yrs. old. Geri was very sweet and gave me gifts at Christmas. I cherish the small cranberry beaded lamp and a graceful 12" sky blue angel music box that stands on my mantle. I often think of Geri when I see it. In fact, she had a collection of angels. Geraldine Palmer appreciated the love her family gave her and is surely a saint in heaven smiling down on them now!
