“ I was blessed to know GG. He was easily the most calm, kindest, and most helpful employees I’ve ever had the pleasure of working with. GG was someone everyone in the building counted on. He literally made the shift! I thought soo highly of him that when I switched companies GG was the first person I tried to steal! And I did! He was loved by everyone! He will continue to be loved & missed by countless people. Until I see you again G! Thank you for every great memory!
