“ Simply put, I am really going to miss Uncle Gus. I loved talking sports whim, specifically baseball (TigersMudhens) & football (Lions.) I also loved hearing his jokes, and talking politics. We were on the same page. As everyone who reads this knows, he was appalled at the current state of leadership, and the lack of focus on the poor and hard working blue collar people of America. When you remember Uncle Gus's life, you have to immediately think of the church and AHEPA. They were synonymous. They were his passion, and he devoted his life to both, on a variety of issues, but also with a particular focus on doing what he could for the Greek Orthodox youth of America.
