

Harold L. Hill

August 27, 1937 - April 23, 2026

Harold L. Hill, 88, passed away peacefully on April 23, 2026, at Hospice of Northwest Ohio – Ebeid. He was born in Toledo, OH to Donald and Lois (Momberg) Hill on August 27, 1937. He overcame polio as a young child, which made him into an overachiever in most areas of his life. He had a love for adventure and fun and lived his life every day to the fullest.

Harold was a kind, lighthearted, caring man who enjoyed giving all he could to everyone, especially his family. He was always happy and loved to make people smile.

He enjoyed his morning coffee get togethers with the guys at Kaslly's Kitchen, boating, garage sales, and fairs. He was a vendor at the Erie Street Market where he enjoyed selling jewelry, as well as NASCAR and NFL memorabilia. He had a love for sports and motorcycles and even won an endurance motorcycle championship in his younger years. If he bought you a present, just be ready to receive it early because Harold could not keep a secret, so he would always end up giving it to you early due to his excitement. His cottage at Long Lake, Reading, MI was his joy from a plot of land then building his retirement home for all his children and grandchildren. Plans changed due to health issues, but OH the memories of Long Lake live forever!

He is survived by his wife of almost 60 years, Elaine; children, Debbie Knight,

Kathy Tanner (Larry Limpf), and Todd (Lori) Hill; grandchildren, Kasey (Alex), Lindsay (Steven), Jamie, Ryan (Missa), Rachel (Sean), Jessica, Jeffery and Katelin (Rob Christoff); and 22 great-grandchildren. He is preceded in death by his parents, brothers and his son, Jeffery G. Hill.

Friends and family are invited to visit at Ansberg-West Funeral Home, 3000 W. Sylvania Ave., on Tuesday, April, 28, 2026, from 3:00pm – 7:00pm, where a prayer service will begin at 6:00pm. A memorial service will begin at the funeral home on Wednesday, April 29, 2026, at 10:00am. Interment will follow at St .Mary’s Catholic Cemetery, Assumption, OH. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Easter Seals. “ Harold Hill was a special man. I have wonderful memories over the years because you and my dad were the best of friends. My childhood memories are filled with weekends at the lake at Harold and Elaine’s cottage. Harold Hill, you were so kind. You always checked in with me to ask how I was doing 💙 I’m so grateful I was able to give you a big hug one last time...I cherish that.

*My heart breaks for all who hold you so dear.
I’m praying Elaine and the Hill family are surrounded by love and comforted by the presence of God and His peace.
With love,
Betty Jo*

“ What a wonderful man Harold was. I remember the days of racing where the two Harolds would get the car ready with Mike Hill and my dad Harold would race it. We always had such a close relationship with him and the family. He was always a kind, sweet man. I will remember him always, and I love him.
