“ What wonderful memories I have of Mr. Bailey and your entire family on McLaren Lake vacationing at Rader's (Zulka's) resort. My mom and dad were always excited to see you each year. May God Bless you with the comfort that Mr. Bailey now sits in heaven, free of pain and trouble...hopefully seeing some friendly faces that he met at the lake. I pray that angels are around during this sorrowful time. Fondly, Barb (Zulka) Mackowiak.

“ Harry and Annie were our first neighbors after we were married, and they were wonderful! Harry always had the best smile and was so very kind, even to our dog, Rocket! When ever they had steak, Rocky knew and would stare into their windows til they opened it up and out came a bone just for him. Harry will be missed, please know that our prayers our with you all, Gordy and Linda

I have fond memories of playing with Harry and his brother Arthur and all the other kids on Macomber St. We all attended Auburndale Grade School at that time -- and then most of us went on to DeVilbiss H.S. (Harry & I must have attended Aldersgate at different times because I don't remember him from there.) That old grade school gang is almost all gone now. The Baileys were great kids!!
