“ Dear Doris and family,

My deepest condolences for the loss of your husband and father. His gentle spirit and love was evident to all who knew him. Simply put, he was a Christ-like example who walked the walk. I recall countless times my belated husband visiting with him to learn more about God and the church and he was always an inspiration to me at the untimely death of my husband Ray. He deeply loved people and helped countless people including my brother Jimmy Begin. The scripture says, "You will know they are Christians by their love." Without a doubt, he had a profound impact on so many peoples lives. He will be missed greatly. May God hold you in His loving arms at this most difficult time. With love and sympathy, Janet Wasielewski

“ Dear Doris and family,

David and I are so very sorry at the loss of your husband and father. He was truly a remarkable man, who loved the Lord so much. He has always been so kind to my whole family. My brother Jim remembers him fondly for giving him a job at his shoe store, which helped pay his tuition at Oklahoma Christian College. He was a wonderful and scriptural elder at Flanders Road Church of Christ, who always taught and lived the truth. It has been our honor to know him. May it give you peace that he is now in the loving arms of Jesus. God's blessings on you all.

*With Love,
David and Connie Street*

“ *To Doris and Family,
We are very sorry to hear of Heman's passing. We read the notice in The Blade. Heman was a wonderful man and a good Christian. I especially remember his warm smile and his many kindnesses to us and to Doug's parents. He was a good elder for the church. You have our sympathy and our prayers.
we are living in Franklin, Tennessee near Nashville. Doug retired from CBS News 16 years ago. We have a son and two grandsons here.
God bless you and comfort you in your loss.*

“ My heart goes out to all of you for your loss but we all know that he is in heaven with our Lord.

Bro. Holden was one of the finest men I have ever known and I always loved talking to him. He always had a smile and a kind word.
