“ Irma and Bob enjoyed listening to Herman play at the Eleanor Kahle Senior Center dances. They danced to the great songs that they remembered from their younger years. Often after the dance, they enjoyed a meal at Bob Evans. On three different occasions, when Bob was at the register to pay for their dinner he was told that someone had already paid for their meals. Apparently, people enjoyed seeing them together and decided to surprise them by paying their bill. ❤️

“ Irma shared a loving relationship with Bob Coon. They met at the senior center dancing. They fell in love and spent many years together. Bob passed in 2022. Irma lived a long life. Although she passed a few days before her birthday she wanted to be with Bob in heaven for her 100 th birthday. Dancing with Bob in heaven!!
