“ We knew Jim as a friend and neighbor and will always remember him as one of the nicest people we had the priviledge of knowing. Hard working and always willing to lend a hand, we will miss him and we'll always have a place for him in our hearts.

“ Each of us all have our fond memories of Jim - an avid fisherman (Dad, Heather and I will cherish our fishing times at the pond), who loved sports. He was a family man who loved his Children and adored his Grandchildren very much. He was full of life, and none of us will ever forget the memories of those bar-be-ques... At this time, we all give thanks for the opportunity to have known Jim and to have loved him. Our thoughts and prayers are with his Children, Grandchildren, Brothers and Sister. We each know our Lord and Saviour will bring each of you His Peace, His Strength, His Love and His Comfort during this sad and difficult time. He will be greatly missed...

“ I was so sorry to read of Jim's passing. We worked together at the old Fisher Body Complex and in Toledo at Powertrain. I enjoyed Jim, as He was always quick to smile and seemed slow to anger. He had a quick wit and was a caring man. I shall miss him. I wish to apologize as I missed His obituary, our family was on holiday and I did not see the paper. Yours, George Hamden
