

James A. Ketcham

July 8, 1994 - August 24, 2017

James A. Ketcham, 23, of Toledo, passed away Thursday, August 24, 2017. He was born July 8, 1994, in Toledo, and was the son of Wanda (Sanderson) Tibai and Philip Ketcham. Jim was a 2013 Start High School graduate. He was a member of Aldersgate United Methodist Church. Jim worked the past 3 years for Event Support Services in Detroit, MI. He enjoyed shooting and riding his motorcycle. He also loved animals, especially cats and working on cars.

Survivors include his mother, Wanda (Larry) Tibai; father, Philip Ketcham; siblings, Erin (Cassandra) Fassold, Emily (Shane Solly) Fassold and Joseph (Sarah) Ketcham. Also surviving is his maternal grandmother, Sandra Sanderson; nephews, Aidan, Jackson and Conor; nieces, Kayleigh and Natalie; his 3 cats, Luka, Jax and Bella; and many cousins, aunts and uncles. He was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather, James Sanderson; paternal grandparents, Joseph and Eunice Ketcham and uncle, Timothy Ketcham. Jim was a loving son, brother, uncle and friend, who was willing to help anyone in need.

Family and friends are invited to visit on Wednesday from 2-8 p.m., in the Ansberg-West Funeral Home, 3000 Sylvania Avenue, (between Secor and Douglas Roads), where funeral services will be held Thursday, at 11 a.m. with Reverend Marilyn Schroeder officiating. Interment will follow in Toledo

Memorial Park. Memorial contributions may be made to the Toledo Area Humane Society, 827 Illinois Avenue, Maumee, OH 43537.

Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.ansberg-west.com

“â€œIf a man die, shall he live again?â€ asked the man Job long ago.(Job 14:14,15)Â Perhaps you, too, have wondered about this. How would you feel if you knew that a reunion with your loved ones was possible right here on earth under the best of conditions?

Well, the Bible makes the promise: â€œYour dead ones will live. . . . They will rise up.â€ And the Bible also says: â€œThe righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it.â€â€”Isaiah 26:19; Psalm 37:29.

“ Our profound condolences go out to the family of Jimmy, especially Phil and Wanda. I can think of nothing more painful than parents laying their child to final rest. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your families as you carry this most heavy of crosses. May the Lord bring to each of you His most holy peace and healing now in the day and weeks ahead.
