“ To the family of Jim Lowry,

I first met Jim as a Sig Ep pledge in the spring of '67. He was a very nice guy and fun loving, funny person to know. My deepest condolences to the family and may he rest in peace.

“ Sorry for this late response to Jim's passing. I was a history teacher at Maumee High School from 1998-2012. In my first few years, I shared a classroom with Jim. What a joy it was to get to know him. What a special man who could share humor, wisdom and knowledge all with a natural ease that just always made my day better. My wife was ill and passed during my first two years at Maumee. I can honestly say he helped to make this time more bearable for me. He holds a special place in my heart.

“ I am very sad to hear of Mr. Lowry's passing. He was my high school psychology teacher. He was amazing with the students and made learning fun. I will never forget him making us laugh. He could always tel when you were having a bad day, and would do everything he could to cheer you up. He was one of my favorite teachers and he will be missed.

“ I am deeply saddened to learn of Jim’s passing. We were best friends throughout grade school and high school and though we had drifted apart, he always has held, and always will hold, a place in my heart. Jim was a very special man (something that I’m sure generations of Maumee High School students will attest) and the world is a lesser place without him in it. My profound sympathies to Patty, Jim’s children and grandchildren, and to John and Jeff on the loss of this wonderful man. Rest In Peace dear friend until we meet again. Ron Tice

“ I was saddened to learn of Jim’s passing. I came to know Jim as a colleague and friend at Maumee High School. Memories of Jim flood over me — from the books that lined Jim’s classroom, to the love shown him by his students, to the manuscript of his book he had me read, to the autographed book he gave me, written by an author he knew I liked.

I know you’re feeling the grief of losing a loved one, but I hope that grief will be lessened a little knowing it’s shared by so many who knew Jim.
