

James E. Mack

September 8, 2007

James "Slim" Mack, 82, died peacefully on Saturday, September 8, 2007 at Hospice of Northwest Ohio in Perrysburg. James was born October 17, 1924 to Melvin and Therese (Lutz) Mack in Toledo. A graduate of Central Catholic High School and an U.S. Army veteran who served in World War II, James was also a member of St. Catherine of Siena Catholic Church for many years. He was a professional painter and decorator, retiring in 1987. James enjoyed spending time with his family and friends at their cottage in the Irish Hills, Michigan. A talented artist and singer, he enjoyed performing in musicals and singing in church choirs for many years. James is survived by his wife of 54 years, Rita Mae (Cajacob) Mack, whom he married September 5, 1953 at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Toledo. Also surviving are his children, Laura (Martin) Brogan, Beth Horne, Therese Weiser, Constance (Joseph) Glase, Joseph (Paige) Mack, 13 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his sister, Jeanne McCormick. The family will receive friends from 2:00 to 5:00pm and 7:00 to 9:00pm Monday in the Ansberg-West Funeral Home 3000 Sylvania Avenue. Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated 11:00am Tuesday in St. Catherine of Siena Church where friends will be received after 10:00am. Interment will be private. Memorial contributions may be made to Hospice of Northwest Ohio or St. Catherine of Siena Church building fund. Online condolences may be sent at www.ansberg-west.com The family would like to acknowledge and thank the staff of Hospice of Northwest Ohio for the extraordinary care James received both at home and in Perrysburg.

“ Beth, My sincere condolences on the loss of your father.
Regardless of how old we are, we are always children of our parents. I hope you are doing well in light of the circumstances. My best wishes and sympathy to your family. I know this is a difficult time as I recently lost my father in Dec. 06. Take care.
