“ Our deepest sympathy to all of you from my family to yours. Mr. Tice took care of my parents taxes for many years. My mom and dad would see him yearly yet they talked like they had seen him a few days before. I remember sitting in his office with his happy/sad face which would be his sign of a refund or payment. I loved it when he showed my parents the happy face. Years later he took care of my ex-husband and I and always asked about my mom. He never forgot her in our conversations. I am sure the angels will be relieved to have such an expert accountant amongst them...and he will enjoy the jazz without interruption. God bless him!
