“ Some of my earliest memories of life at the Toledo Gospel Tabernacle was the powerful presence of a real man of faith - Mr. Worley. I as saddened to hear of the passing of my Sunday School teacher who demanded so much of his students, but gave so much in return. To my dear life-long friends, Jim and Sandy, and to the entire Worley family - I pray the God of peace may comfort you as you mourn this earthly loss and may you have the joy of knowing he is now in the perfect forever.
