I thought life was forever but it wasn't meant to be. I'm growing old and tired and God is calling me. I hate to leave my loved ones, but they have shared my pain; but I'm ready now for Jesus, I hear him call my name. I feel his hand upon me. He'll guide me through it all; in a blessed peace He'll hold me; I'm answering his call, don't grieve for me, my dear ones for I am heaven blessed. God knows I'm weary, He's called me home to rest.
