“ Cindy; I am so sorry to read about the loss of your sister Jill, and having siblings myself - I can not imagine just exactly what you are going through, but I want you to know that your grief is shared by the many people who know your family. May I extend my deepest sympathy to you, and the entire Burgess, and Powers families. To be sure - she is now at peace, and with her Creator. She is suffering no more.

Sorry to just now read about Jill's passing. I met Jill and Randy in California many many years ago. When I moved back to Michigan I look them up in Perrysburg and was great to get reacquainted. Jill was one of the good ones, sorry to hear of her passing so early in her life.

“ Hard to believe someone so full of life is no longer with us. Jill always had that subtle way of insulting you and making you feel good about it. The good times in California can never be duplicated and never should. My thoughts go out to you Randolph, Kati, and Zack--you had one fine lady.
