“ WeNow both loved your mom and will miss her. There are many good times to remember and now, there is no more pain for her. Now there is one more "star in the sky". We're here if you need anything.

“ We are very sorry for your loss. We both lost our moms last year and know your pain. With great love, comes great loss. You will miss her forever, but it does help to remember the good times, the fun times and all your memories. Maybe they are all at Gods campground having big fun. Take care.
