“ Dad, I will miss u every day and think about u every time i here the word punk come out of anyones mouth . You were such a great father to me with so much love to give alot of people didn't know or think that about u but u always found a way to let me know how much u did love me. But know that u are gone i will always do as u taught me, keep my chin up high, take everything and everyone for who they are, and always try to find the best in everyone. I will always love u dad but untill we meet again take care punk.
