“ Memories of him make me smile; i.e. a few years ago I saw him sitting at the mall. When I came into his view his eyes grew kind, his smile warm and then we would laugh. We had a connection. He was the gentle mature man that I had known for many years through his son's friendship. He was the example of kindness, being a hard worker and keeping Greek tradition alive. Back in his day, he was the one that fed the multitudes while making you feel welcome. He will be missed, but always remembered.

“ I met John Voudouris in 1976 when I first became part of the Greek community in Toledo. He was always a very kind, hardworking man, with a wonderful wife, Elizabeth, and children Christina and Ted. Mr. Voudouris will be missed by all who knew him. May his memory be eternal.
