“ My sincerest condolences go out to Dawn, Ray, Connie and Nettie on the passing of Joe. I remember the Gentiles as a wonderful family from my childhood with Joe and Nettie as the head of it. It is difficult losing a father and a husband but knowing that he is in a better place and pain free will eventually bring you comfort. I would have loved to offer my condolences in person and see all of you again, but I was traveling on business. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Sue Stull

“ Nettie and family...Our deepest sympathy and condolences to you all.We've known you for 35 years and we really had so many good times together (Super Bowl parties), going to the lake, holidays, etc. A lot of laughter and fun. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. It's sad to lose another good friend, but Joey is at rest now, and with a lot of his friends and family. Love, Sue and Denise and family.

“ It is always difficult losing the ones we love. My prayers and heartfelt sympathy are with you all. So much time has passed. I remember "Joey" as always kind, laughing, and gregarious. I still remember many happy memories of the "gang" & our times together, no matter how long ago they have been. Even though all of us (Lenz's, Gentile's & Caps) grew apart, I will always remember all the fun we had-I often think of the football gatherings; especially as I watch the Sunday games. God Bless Joey and all his loved ones! Karen Lenz-Winterhalter (Don & Sue's daughter)
