

Joyce J. Micheals

December 27, 2008

Joyce J. Micheals, 74, of Swanton, passed away Saturday, December 27, 2008, at Defiance Inpatient Hospice Center. She was born December 16, 1934, in Toledo, OH and was the daughter of Stanley and Emma Powell. Before retiring, Joyce was an X-Ray technician for over 50 years at Mercy Hospital and X-Ray Associates. Survivors include her brother, Fred Powell; sisters, Janet (John) Gorka, Shirley (Dave) Perkins, Judy Lyons, Barbara Barlow, and Joan (Herbert) Baker; numerous nieces and nephews and great-nieces and great-nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, brothers, Robert Powell, John Powell and Stanley Powell Jr. and her sister, Patricia Powell. Friends are invited to visit from 3-8 p.m. Monday, in the Ansberg-West Funeral Home, 3000 Sylvania Avenue, where the Rosary will be recited at 7:30 p.m. Funeral Mass will be held at 10 a.m. Tuesday, (meet at church), in St. Joseph Catholic Church, (Locust and Erie Streets), downtown Toledo. Father Joseph Poggemeyer will officiate. Interment will be in Toledo Memorial Park. Memorial contributions may be made to the Foundation for Life.

Tribute Wall

“ To the family of Joyce, My deepest sympathies to you. Joyce & I were tech's together at Mercy Hospital. Always an excellent tech, enjoyed working with her. She performed her exams quickly & accurately & a pleasure to work side by side. Fond memories

Valerie Sujkowski-Malinowski - malidova@aol.com malidova@aol.com -

February 01, 2018 at 12:00 AM