“ We were deeply saddened to hear from Erik about Kevin. He was a fine young man and hockey player. In fact we still sport a team picture on our family room wall with Kevin as our goalie. Many fond memories of the hockey tournaments and good times will follow us all. May God bless you both and help to ease your sorrow in the loss of your son. He will never be forgotten.

“ Kathy, Our hearts go out to you. We are Vicki's Dad and Stepmom. We bring our cat Missy to you. Don't know if you knew I lost my daughter, Peggy, when she was 32. I know what it feels like to loose a child, it is overwhelming to believe it happens, the parents are supposed to out live the children. We will keep you in our hearts and hope and pray you can go forward in your life. You will find your strength from your faith in God. Although right now you don't think that way, you will in time. Life is never fair, it seems.
