“ Looked in the Blade today and saw a face that was one I seem to have spent a lot of time around back in high school. Many fond memories of the Sprague family! Back yard basketball, camping in Luddington, and staying past my curfew at the Sprague house. My condolences to Mrs Sprague, always so kind to me, Lowrie, Larry and Pam and families.

We know how important family is to you, please depend on all the wonderful memories you have of your dad to get you though the rough times. As always, consider yourselves hugged, we just wish we could be there in person to do so.
