“ I am so sorry that I cannot be there for your mother's visitation and funeral service. I will leading a group here in Assisted Living that she came to quite often: "Grey Matters". I am amongst the many people, both residents and staff, who were quite fond of her. Over the last several days I have heard her described as "classy" and "genteel" and "kind" and "very friendly". Please know that my prayers are with you in your loss. Bill Barnard, SCR V

“ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5

“ Dear Rose and family, We were saddened to read of the passing of your dear mother. I have very fond memories of the good days we shared in her gracious home on Parkside, during my childhood. I remember the lush, mounded feather beds!! I remember her piano and all the fun songs that we sang. I remember her big back yard and the events that you planned there. It is very gratifying for me to share these memories with you at this time. My mother remains active at the bridge table at Kingston in Sylvania. She is 93. Please know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. Take good Care from an old friend. Cheryl (Chey)
