“ Jeff and Amy, I was saddened to hear of Aunt Lois's passing. She was a great friend to my mom. It seems that all the parents and their friends are gone. I know that God will be with you during this time.

“ Our condolences to Jeff and Amy. We always enjoyed being with both your parents when they were members of the Searchers Class at Monroe St. Church. Lois carried on the family name which is a rich part of the history of that church, and her passing leaves a void for all of us who knew her.

“ How could I ever forget my very first teacher. I remember her well. Somewhere in this house is a picture of her and myself with a few other kids that was printed in the paper. Also somewhere among my treasures is the class portrait from Garfield 50 yrs. ago. I'm so sorry for your loss.
