

Lois L. Seymour

February 2, 1938 - March 10, 2019

Lois (Crawford) Seymour, age 81, of Toledo, passed away March 10, 2019 surrounded by her family at Kingston Care Center of Sylvania, where she resided following a debilitating stroke. Lois was born February 2, 1938 to the late James and Nellie Crawford in Wilkes-Barre, PA. She graduated from Woodward High School and attended Davis Business College. Lois loved visiting the casino and playing the slot machines. She was passionate about her family, friends and love of life. The world was a much better place with Lois in it. She will be missed terribly by all those fortunate to have been part of her life.

She was preceded in death by her former husband, William Seymour; son, Patrick Seymour and granddaughter, Maria Redmond. Lois is survived by her daughter, Catherine (James) Redmond; son, William (Julie) Seymour; granddaughters, Tiffany (Ryan) Kranz and Stephanie Andrzejewski; step grandson, Robert (Barbara) Binion; great grandchildren, Joy, Allison, Melody, Brody, Wyatt; step great granddaughter, Brooke; brother, James (Marguerite) Crawford; longtime companion, Roger Rickenmann; daughter of the heart, Ernestine Ripke and former brothers in law, Robert (Colette) Seymour and Patrick (Jerry) Seymour.

“ I extend my deepest sympathy to the family of my friend, Lois. I worked with Lois at Libbey-Owens-Ford and we had a great friendship. Lois loved and cherished her family. I know that she collected angels and gave several angels to me as gifts. I will cherish them and think of Lois knowing she is now an angel of God. May she rest in peace - no pain and suffering - wrapped in the loving arms of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.
