“ My sympathy to all of the family! Due to the virus, I will not be at the wake service, however you will all be in my prayers. (As background information, my grandfather Charles Subzak, married her grandmother, Sophie Kwiatkowski.. Lorrie was always sweet, friendly and full of life as I knew her. She is resting in peace now and will be even closer to you all in death than she was in life. It is hard to believe, but it is true! Wait! You will see!
