“ God bless the many family and friends of Louie. We know God has reunited him with Mary Jeanne and their other family and friends who awaited. God is definitely rewarding him for his great contributions here on Earth. He left a positive image on everyone he met. Becky has said it best, he loved life and his love was indeed contagious. He was an inspiration in so many ways. We will greatly miss him. Our love and prayers are with his blessed family.

“ Grandpa, If I had to describe your life, I would call it a love story. You loved life. You loved being a dad, a grandpa, and most of all-a husband. I hope that I can live my life as you did. I love you so much and I will miss everything about you. You had the greatest smile and laugh. You were such a wonderful person and I hope you are enjoying the next life with grandma.
