Loyd was a lover of animals and the color red.

“ Sending love and light ❤️ One fond memory is from January, 2023 in Tracy’s beautiful home, having dinner together at the dining room table. She was so lovely and pleasantly welcoming to me. Content and so sweet, sitting there with us, enjoying seemingly absolutely everything.... She would ask where her Darby was and then express relief and gladness each time Tracy reminded her, “just down at your feet, mom.” We took photos on the couch after dinner, and I love how she had her purse on her shoulder, gorgeous lipstick on with a huge smile in those photos. YOU ARE LOVED, mamma Doran ❤️❤️❤️

“ Aunt Loyd was the best!! I will always remember that she was the only adult that would play volleyball with us kids at our parties 😊 She was fun and she meant the world to my mom and all of us! She will be missed!

“ I will always remember how well spoken, proper ,sweet funny and fun she was! She was to this day one of only three people that's ever gotten me out in the dance floor and danced in front of people and she made me feel 100% comfortable. I didn't feel foolish or nothing as I usually am too shy to dance ask previous ex-girlfriends LOL.
She will always be loved and greatly missed

“ *Dear Doran Family,
My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. Aunt Loyd was one of those special people who made others feel welcomed and loved. We had many wonderful conversations while vacationing at the lake. I will forever be grateful of getting to know her and your entire family. Love you all.*

“ I remember several years ago walking into my kitchen late in the evening looking across the way into Dorans kitchen window. There Ray and Loyd were dancing in the kitchen and I remember thinking how wonderful it was in that small space to share that special moment. Together again they can dance the heavens. Your friend and neighbor as well. Sandy Douglas
