

Lynda Maye DeVincent

September 25, 1945 - March 2, 2010

Lynda Maye DeVincent, passed away peacefully at home, surrounded by her family, after a courageous journey through the illness of cancer. She was originally from Galveston, Texas, moved to Toledo, Ohio, and lived in Thibodaux, Louisiana for the past seven years. Lynda worked as a sales associate at Stage Department Store. She loved helping her customers and working with her fellow employees. Spending time with her grandchildren was Lynda's greatest joy in life. She loved gardening, spending time with her friends at bingo, was very passionate about life and lived each day completely. She was loved by many and will be sadly missed by all. Survivors include her son, Raymond DeVincent , daughter, Amy (Jack) Bridges, both of Thibodaux, LA; grandchildren, Jackson, Ryan, Christian, Katherine, Collin and Kyle. Also surviving are her sisters, Mary McCann and Norma Burke. She was preceded in death by her husband, Charles DeVincent and her parents, George and Evelyn (Jarrett) Pawliski. Friends are invited to visit from 2-8 p.m. Sunday and from 10 a.m. until the time of the funeral services at 12 Noon, Monday, in the Ansberg-West Funeral Home, 3000 Sylvania Avenue. Interment will follow in Oak Grove Cemetery, Bowling Green, OH. We would like to thank Dr. Stephen Harris, Dr. John Milek, and Dr. Jody Plaisance for their compassion and support as well as all of the wonderful nursing staff at Thibodaux Regional Medical Center and St. Joseph Hospice.
