“ So sorry to read of your mother's passing. My sincere condolences for your loss. I remember her coming home from work at the National Supply and she looked so beautiful and I wanted an office job so I dress and look like her!! I also remember many after-school days at your grandmother's. She was a wonderful lady too. I remember your dad, with his very dark hair and being goodlooking too. I also remember those long curls you always had in grade school and was soooo jealous. Then hanging out with Nancy Burgermeister and Judy Anton!!! Good Old Days. Take care and bless you. An old, old friend. Carol Wines Bruno

“ Hi Susan, so sorry to read of your Mother's passing. It was certainly a call from the past to see the name Carper. Do you remember that you and I and Carol Sue (Susie) Wines used to play together when you lived on Bishop St.
