“ I met Margaret when she was a young widow with a house full of kids. I was a college student and needed a place to stay close to campus. She took me in and I did my best to help her with the kids. They were a delight and so was she. Many fond memories. My deepest sympathy to all of her surviving children.

“ It seemed like only yesterday that Russ Mossing and I were standing 2gether in the kitchen at the Lutheran Church of Our Saviour making our "Left-handed" pancakes 2gether 2 sell 4 Boy Scout Troop 156 4 one of their pancake breakfasts, a fund raiser so the boys could make it out west. Russ and Libbie Mossing were great supporters of Boy Scout Troop 156 and they were blessed with an angel that supported them when Russ was young. I believe that you will always have a guardian angel looking out 4 you from heaven. Luv you always! Jeff, Cindy and Matt Whitmore
