

Marilyn (Hoyt) Martin

April 18, 1937 - May 19, 2020

Marilyn Martin (Hoyt) was born on April 18, 1937 and passed away peacefully on May 19, 2020 at the age of 83. The second of nine children of Elliot and Helen Hoyt, she began life on the West side of Toledo and graduated from Scott High School. She married her husband, Robert (Sonny) Martin, on September 10, 1955, and relished her role as a wife and homemaker in the East side of Toledo, later moving to North Lauderdale, FL, then Sebring, FL, returning to Toledo, and finally, living with family in Athens, OH.

Her family will always hold on to the image of her making the bed, even if she was sick or tired, or just sick and tired. No matter the circumstances, the bed was made. She was a homemaker in the best sense of the word. She loved large family gatherings and her extended family. Marilyn died, surrounded by her loving family because Marilyn was a loving woman, a feisty lady with a gentle disposition and a servant's soul. This Foxylady, as her internet address identified her, loved to laugh, and her home was always a place of welcome. Whether it was a bed for a sick child, a warm meal, Treet sandwiches, or a cup of coffee, Marilyn gave it away generously. A true family matriarch, she embodied the kindhearted soul. She loved to sing, loved to dance, enjoyed jazz music, and watching her favorite show, Blue Bloods.

She is survived by her children, Robert Martin (Barbara) Athens, Ohio, Cheryl Cumnock (Bob) Cedaredge, CO, Tammy Ramos (Ralph) Ogden, UT, David

Martin (Brandy) Coconut Creek, FL; her grandchildren, Elizabeth Rauscher (Adam), Robert Martin (Miranda), Katie Cumnock (Lane), Michael Ramos, Teresa Stewart (Michael), Gabric Ramos (Sasha), Sarah Martin, and Andrew Martin; her great-grandchildren, Maximus Stewart, Theodore Rauscher, and Eleanor Rauscher; her sisters Judy Graham (Chuck) and Lynne Ferree (Eugene); her brothers Roger Hoyt (Marsha) and Rick Hoyt (Flo); and her many nieces, nephews, and cousins, too numerous to name here, but still remembered in love.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Robert (Sonny) Martin (2007), sisters Barbara Wagner and Nancy Niklis and her brothers James Hoyt (Karen) and Gary Hoyt (Mary).

A memorial service will be held in Toledo, at Ansberg-West Funeral Home Saturday, August 22, 2020 at 11:00am.

Due to current conditions caused by the ongoing pandemic, we are offering a Live Stream of the service beginning at 10:45am for those who wish to attend the Service virtually.

“ What a great lady. Never a dull moment. Full of laughter that’s what I will remember the most about Marilyn. When she was with her sister, watch out, yes it was comedy hour for sure. My deepest condolences to the family. She will be greatly missed but never forgotten. Memories are to be held onto, that’s how they live on in our hearts. I have great memories of Marilyn with her sisters and brothers at family gathering. Looking back makes me smile, yes sad too as we lost a wonderful person who added to the joy in our lives. Our thoughts are with you at this time of sorry and joyful remembrance,, Marianne and John Elizondo

“ I remember meeting Sonny and Marilyn when I started dating my now-husband, Bob Jennings. Rob and Bob were best friends and the families, with the Gepharts included, were close and always doing something together. The night Bob and I decided on our wedding date was the night of the Church Street block party and Sonny was so excited to hear that we were going to use that date the following year! Marilyn cried and hugged us both. After they moved to Florida, we traveled down to see my parents and went to see them and had such a great time. They treated our kids like they were their grandchildren! As small as Ted and Jayme were, they never forgot Grandma Marilyn. I'm so sorry to see her go and sorry for the loss to her family. Rob, Cheryl, Tammy, and David, we think of you all often and especially now as you say goodbye to your mom and we say goodbye to Dad Jennings. Crazy that they left us so close together. But I'll bet there is a big block party in heaven and Sonny's big laugh is echoing through the streets of gold. Bless you all. Bob and Cindy Jennings

“ I loved my Aunt Marilyn! My memories of her are always filled with laughter. Especially the times she was surrounded by her sisters. It was a continuous "feed-off each other" comedy hour that had no end, and I enjoyed being a part of it! I will miss her 💕
