“ I am very sorry for your lost, Rose. Marjorie, whom I used to called "Grandma", is a very nice lady with a warm heart. I met her because of her attractive garden. Beautiful flowers attracted our attention, so we stoped by Grandma's door asking for taking a photos of flowers. Grandma was happy showing me not only flowers, but also her vagetable garden. That was the first time we met. As a student of UT engineering school,I had more chances stop by her home to chat with her while I came back to my room on Wyndhurst St. She treated me so nice,as her grandkids. Her true love made me, a foreign student, felling like being home even outside was snowing. I remember all the days we had together. Missing you!
