“ I was saddened to hear the news about Mark. I thought he was a cool guy, and I will cherish the great conversations we had about cars, and life's ups and downs. Sarah McLachlan's beautiful song ?Angel? comes to mind, as I believe Mark is at peace, and has found comfort. My thoughts and prayers will be with his family and loved ones in this time of mourning and remembrance.

“ Family of Mark D. Braatz Very sorry to read about the passing of your dear loved one Mark. I am writing the family to share a few words of comfort and encouragement from God, s word the bible. The bible has such comforting thoughts at a time like this. It seems that life is such a precious gift and yet so short-lived for the time we exist. God is referred to as a father of comfort with tender mercies. He holds out a wonderful hope for all those in the grave. At John 11:25 Jesus said "I AM THE RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE. HE THAT EXERCISES FAITH IN ME EVEN THOUGH HE DIES WILL COME TO LIFE." Yes, God, s greatness is evident in the resurrection of his son Jesus. Moreover, that great act is a guarantee that the resurrection of others possible. It should strengthen our faith that God can bring back to life the billions of dead people he holds within his perfect memory. (JOHN 5-28,29) What a blessed reason to hope in God! God has given all mankind a wonderful gift of our memories. as you and your, s start to heal the memories of Mark will bring you great joy. Grieving takes time and is a natural process. No matter how much you want to "Stop the hurt" bereaved persons must endure the grieving process. I hope these few words have lightened your grief strengthened your faith in our heavenly father. “ To Mark's family first of all, you are all in my thoughts and prayers to have lost such a special loved one. To have Mark as a friend was a privilege. He never asked for anything but would go out of his way to help anyone, and most of all he would always make you laugh and think. I know he will be greatly missed by all who had the luck of knowing him. God bless him and his family....
