“ Kay,

We were so sorry to hear today (Thursday) about Bud. You are in our prayers, trusting that God will give you strength, love and peace in this time. I apologize that we did not find out sooner and make it to his visitation or service. We always enjoyed seeing him out in the yard and how beautiful you two made it look. The girls and us miss you and hope to see you soon.

*Sincerely,
Jason & Shauna*

“ Bud was an amazing man with a huge heart! I will always appreciate his willingness to help anyone in need especially me when I first started at UT. My younger brother absolutely adored Bud and enjoyed working with him as much as I did. Safe in God's hands, forever in our hearts.
