

Martin V. Keefe

January 14, 1940 - May 14, 2016

Martin V. Keefe Sr., 76, of Naples Florida and Toledo Ohio passed away on May 14, 2016 in his family's residence. He was born in Toledo in January, 1940 to Frances (LaJiness) and Daniel Keefe.

Prior to his retirement, Marty was a purchaser for Dana Corporation and a manager at Sardini's Restaurant in Toledo. He was also a United States Postal Carrier for ten years in Naples, Florida. He loved people, Florida, news, history television, Pepsi, Cain's Potato Chips, Rudy's Hot Dog's and popcorn. His warm magnetic personality and humorous ways would charm, making everyone smile and feel welcome. Dedication and Strength though were his strongest attributes known by family and friends both near and far. He lived and breathed with the heart of a lion.

Marty is survived by his loving children, Tammy (Odis) Keefe-Koleff, Marty Keefe Jr., David (Sheila) Keefe, Donald Keefe; grandchildren, Lisa, Jennifer, Scott, Carolyn, Heidi, Jeremy, Nicole, Nina; great-grandchildren, Jacob, Grace, Dylan, Donovan, David, Dayton, Daxton Daniel (Danny boy to Papa), Brenden, Antonio Jr. "Tonio", Ayden, Addison, Declan, and baby Kennedy due in November.

His family wishes to extend special thanks to all that have helped him including his neighbors, friends and staff at The Chickee of Quality Inn for their loving and caring friendship.

Friends are invited to visit on Saturday May 21, 2016 after 10:00am at the Ansberg-West Funeral Home, 3000 W. Sylvania Ave. where funeral services will follow beginning at 1:00pm. Officiant Rev. Robert Reinhart. Interment will be in Calvary Cemetery. Those wishing to make memorial contributions are asked to consider the Sisters of Notre Dame, or the St. Jude's Children's Hospital.
