“ I was saddened to learn of Mary Margaret's passing. I once owned an antiques shop on Larchmere, near Shaker Square in Cleveland. I saw MM regularly in those years. She was a lovely, perky, always put-together woman whom I enjoyed seeing. I remember her in part for the lovely things she would find to sell. More importantly, I remember her for her deeply held Catholic faith, which she often expressed. I know she is safe now in God's loving arms.

“ Liz,
Kris and I were shocked and so very, very sorry to hear about Mary Margaret. She was so smart, warm and funny. The thing we remember is how you, MM and your Mom had so much fun, were always laughing, and in such good spirits. I know you all were so very close.
I smile when I go to the cemetery and see your beautiful pink geraniums "for the kids" as Mary Margaret would say. I know she loved her Catholic faith and I know you will miss her dearly. Please know we are thinking of you.
Love,
Carol

I grew up with her at Highland Meadows. Remember she was strong in a quiet way. Good golfer too.
