

Mary L Klapp

March 1, 2008

Klapp Mary L. Mary L. Klapp, age 90, passed away March 1, 2008 at Toledo Hospital. She was born February 13, 1918 to James and Pearl French in Colesburg, KY. Mary contributed to the World War II effort by working in a munitions plant in Louisville, KY while her husband, Kasmer served overseas. She enjoyed sewing crafts and was an avid quilter and seamstress for which she received many awards for her pieces. A longtime member of Christ the King Church, Mary will be remembered as a devout catholic and a loving mother to her children. She is survived by her loving husband of 66 years, Kasmer; children, Margaret Fisher, Barbara Lardinais, Dan Klapp, Carleen Jones, Mary Arbuckle; grandchildren, Courtney Fisher, Jessica and Danielle Lardinais, Amanda (Jason) LaScola, Gabriel Colon, Ryden Arbuckle, great grandchildren, Ryan Fisher, Sloane Fisher, Benjamin LaScola; and sister, Betty Marcum. She was preceded in death by her son, John Klapp. Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated 10:00am Wednesday in Christ the King Church with Rev. Michael O. Brown officiating. Friends are invited to visit from 4:00 to 8:00pm today in the Ansberg-West Funeral Home 3000 Sylvania Avenue where the Rosary will be recited at 7:00pm. Interment in Calvary Cemetery. Online condolences may be left at www.ansberg-west.com

Tribute Wall

BB

“ At this time of sorrow please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you. There is now an angel in heaven, named Mary, watching over you.

Bob Burns - February 01, 2018 at 12:00 AM

LU

“ Hi Barbara, Kathy and I would like to express our condolences to you and your family. The passing of a parent is always hard no matter the circumstances. Hope you and the girls are well. God Bless.

Larry and Kathy Ulrich - ulrichllc@yahoo.com ulrichllc@yahoo.com - February 01, 2018 at 12:00 AM