“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this difficult and sad time. I hope and pray that as time passes you find the peace that you are looking for. I still have some of the fondest memories of my childhood playing in the basement next door with Jenny etc, and the most wonderful iced tea! Your Mom, Grandmother, Wife, GreatGrandmother will be definitely missed....Mary Jeanne was like family to my Mom for sure. Again, my deepest condolences to your family.

“ God Bless the family and friends of Mary Jeanne. We will miss her very much. We will miss her smiles, support, courage and encouragement to keep trying. We will miss her always being at Louie's side. Louie can be certain she is still by his side just in a spirit free from pain and suffering but still full of love and caring. We know God is definitely proud of her influences on his earth and is rewarding her now. We were truly blessed to have had Mary Jeanne in our lives!

“ Very sad to hear of the passing of Mary. I loved Mary. Mary was a wonderful lady with a gorgeous soprano voice till the end. She had a great spirit and will sorely be missed by the St Stephens choir. May the Angels welcome you to paradise and the martyrs greet you along the way. Rest in peace my friend. Julie Fisher
