“ Mary was the most beautiful and caring woman that we ever knew and her warm spirit and smiling face will truly be missed. We are so sorry for Alex and the family's loss and there are no words right now that will fill that void. The only joy in all this is that Mary is where she was destined to be with God in heaven along with her beloved Nick and other family and friends. So, for Mary, it is heavenly bliss.... But for Alex, family, and friends....it is sadness until the day we all meet with Mary again. Our deepest sympathies to each of you and God bless.
