“ I worked with Maryanne when I first started with the City back in 2001. I remember her being very funny and had a tell it like it is attitude. She had a sense of style with a flair of flavor! I have often thought of her through the years and wondered what she had been up to after retirement. I am sad to hear of her passing and will always remember her being nice to me and making me laugh my first days of work. Thank you Maryanne and God Bless you and your family!
