“ I just stumbled onto Mrs Frahn’s obituary and had an immediate memory of the lovely mom of my sweet friend Robin. Mrs. Frahn was always so welcoming and kind when I visited their home, and the perfect example of a woman who took enormous pride in caring for her home and family. I was always impressed by how Robin could share everything with her mom and Mrs Frahn understood and gave great advice. She was also one of the ladies who worked in the McAuley cafeteria and tactfully reminded me that two cookies was not a great lunch. She was the mom at school! The last time I saw Mrs Frahn was several years ago at a senior dance she was attending with her husband. I was working for the sponsoring organization. When she walked up to me I was immediately impressed by how glamorous she looked! I was used to her as a mom but I saw her as a beautiful lady that evening enjoying a fun night with friends. She came up to me and gave me a big hug- and was as sweet as ever. I’ll always remember her as someone special. I’m so sorry I just had an opportunity to share this but I’m so glad I knew her.

“ We want to live and enjoy life with with those whom we love. It is only natural that we yearn to see our loved ones again. Christ Jesus promises us that he will restore life to many who have fallen asleep in death. He states at John 5:28,29 that they will hear his voice and wake up. They will have the opportunity to live in a paradise earth. This promised future includes perfect health and everlasting life.
