“ My family and I would like to say we are so soory for the loss of a wonderful friend and mentor. Mike always had a kind or encouraging word to share with anyone. He was someone to look up to and emulate. His faith and belief in God and human nature set a standard that others admired.I will miss him and the St. Agnes community will recognize his contributions in forever.

“ John and Mike-sorry for the lost of your dad. Back in the summer I shared a hospital room with him for about one hour-he was complaining about not getting discharged fast enough because he was missing GOLF on tv. And could not wait to start playing again himself. Well,he's playing all the golf he wants now with the BIG GUY as a partner. Your families our in our prayers- Terry and Jennie Meyers
