

Nancy J. Horton

March 2, 1927 - October 24, 2012

Nancy J. (Lee) Horton, 85, passed away peacefully in the company of family and friends on Wednesday, October 25th. She was born on March 2nd, 1927 to Louis and Frances Lee and was a graduate of Whitmer High School, Class of 1945. She also attended the University of Toledo. In addition to being an incredible homemaker and mother, Nancy and her husband of 63 years, Don (who preceded her in death in 2010), were strong advocates for people with disabilities. Nancy volunteered at Camp Courageous, in the Larc Lane Mothers Club, for United Health Care Services, and on levy campaigns. She was a member of LARC, the Conn-Weisenberger Women's Auxiliary, and was a lifelong member of Reformation Lutheran Church. Nancy's dedication, kindness, and generosity earned the respect and admiration of her community. She will be greatly missed. Nancy was a good cook, a great speller, and meticulous housekeeper. She took great pride in her home and in her beautiful family. Blessed and fondly remembering her lifetime of support, strength, and unconditional love are her children, Linda (Rick), Mark, and Greg and her grandchildren, Kerry (Stan), Alissa (Jon), and Kevin (Serene). She is also survived by siblings, Marilyn and Ron, and great grandchildren, Milo, Max, Toby, Cleo, and Josie. The family wishes to thank the wonderful staff at Toledo Hospital for their help and kindness. Services will be 11:00 AM Monday at the Ansberg-West Funeral Home, 3000 Sylvania Avenue where the family will receive from 3:00-8:00 PM Sunday. Interment Ottawa Hills Memorial Park. Memorials can be made to Josina Lott Residential Home, 120

South Holland-Sylvania Ave., Toledo, OH 43615.

“ It brought sadness to my heart to hear of Nancy and her passing. I always so admired her...Don...and ALL of you as a very loving, close, supportive family. I'm sure she is back holding hands with Don by now ...both with huge smiles...looking down on the ones they will forever hold so dear. With very special memories of my own with all of you do I send my most genuine, sincere love..sympathy..and friendship.
