“ Bak, while over the 14 years I was part of your family you and I never really spoke, but I wanted you to know that you indirectly gave me the greatest gift of my life, my son, your great grand son Shane. I am grateful to you for that and will always remember your simple smile. May you rest in peace.

“ Dear Family, Our sister-in-law will be greatly missed as she was always full of fun and laughter. I shall miss her beautiful smile, she was like a light bulb that always lit up when she was so very happy. . . and she was that so much of the time. Your love was always present for her and will be honored now that she is in heaven. Love to you all. Your family from Colorado and California.
