“ Collene and Tom,

Brian and I are so sorry for your loss. Both of you took great care of your Mom. She is probably looking down on you ready to watch over you again.

Sorry we couldn't make it to the service. I fell a couple of days ago and am not getting around too good.

“ Thinking of you and Tom today, Collene. Your mom was a passionate woman, who instilled strong values, and an ethic for hard work, into both you and your sister. We were so lucky to grow up in the time that we did, with strong family and neighborhood ties, knowing someone was always looking out for us. Blessings to you both as you find your new "normal", remembering that your mom who still lives on in you and through you each day.
