“ To laugh often and much; To win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; To earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; To appreciate beauty, to find the best in others; To leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition; To know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded. I didn't know Randy, I just read what happened in the paper and wanted to say he was a rare breed these days and a very honorable man. I am sorry your family has to live without him and endure the inhuman actions of others. May peace be with you.
