“ My condolences to the family of Richard (Dick) Amstutz. I have fond memories of the time I spent in Gelnhausen while he was stationed there. . . Lost touch with the Amstutz's many years ago. . . Hopefully, his family will find solace recalling the good times with their brother, husband, father, step-father, and grandfather.

“ I think people leave their presence on this earth with the people they leave behind. Uncle Dick left his mark on me in many ways. He was strong, driven, understanding, trustworthy and very fun...I have fond memories of visiting him in Virginia Beach and D.C. But, most of all, he was a soldier who made me proud to be an American. So, here is to the man that gave me my sense of patriotism. God bless you.

“Michelle and Ryan, Erik and Robin: Please accept our condolences on the loss of your father. My main lesson was that I failed in the few chances I had to get to know your Dad and I know that was my loss. Let us all remember to get to know the people around us so that we might benefit from their experiences and points of view as they might from ours. We might well have become friends as well as family. Please pass along our condolences to the rest of the Amstutz family and know that you all have our best wishes as you honor and celebrate the life of your father, brother, uncle.
