“ I'm very sorry for your loss. I remember Mr. Cameron coming into Al's for dinner with the family and to see Zac. He was a great guy and loved his family very much. I'm praying for your whole family to make this process of mourning easier somehow. Thinking of all of you. Rest in Heaven Mr. Cameron.

“ Dear Peggy & Family, We were in shock to hear of Bob's passing as we had no idea he had had any medical issues. Mike & I have not kept in touch alot over the years but have run into him several times to always hear him talk with extra pride & happiness about his wonderful family. He was a great friend of ours in high school & believe it or not Best Man in our wedding way back when. He worked with Mike's dad at Art Iron for many years & was a big help to Mike's mom when his dad died. He was always a wonderful friend & caring person to us & many others but of course you all already know what a great person he was. We are extremely sorry we can't come to the service due to our own medical issues right now but our hearts & prayers are certainly with all of you at this most difficult time. Nothing helps healing more than your wonderful memories so keep sharing them always. With sympathy & love,
Mike & Debbie
